Organized by
Department of Community Medicine,
AIMS, BG Nagara

In Association with
Karnataka Association of Community Health (KACH)

Greetings from the Organizing committee, KACHCON 2019.

KACH (Karnataka Association of Community Health) is an association of nearly 550 community health and public health professionals from different medical colleges, local self-bodies and various health sectors across Karnataka, established in the year 1984. Members of the association have occupied very high-ranking offices at State, National, and International levels. Every year, the association organizes state level conference to cover the wide areas of public health issues.

This year, the department of Community Medicine, Adichunchanagiri Institute of Medical Sciences (AIMS) is hosting 31st State Level KACH Conference - KACHCON 2019 on 13th and 14th September 2019, with the theme "Action Oriented Community Medicine- Strong Linkages & Synergies for Better Health". The main focus of the conference being integrated approach of various health sectors like medical colleges, NGOs and Government health institutions in the country for better delivery of health services.

AIMS, a premier medical educational and research institution started in the year 1986 under the stewardship of His Holiness Paramapoojya Jagadguru Padmabhushana Sri Sri Sri Dr Balagangadharanatha Mahaswamiji and at present is managed by efficient team of people under the guidance of Paramapoojya Jagadguru Sri Sri Sri Dr Nirmalanandanatha Mahaswamiji. The institution is located 100 km away from Bengaluru on the highway to Mangaluru. The institution caters to the health needs of the rural population in the preventive, curative and rehabilitative domains besides teaching and training undergraduates and postgraduates of Medicine. Now it's a part of the Adichunchanagiri University since January 2018 with six constituent colleges in the disciplines of Medicine, Pharmacy, Nursing, Engineering, Management, Commerce and Education.

It will be our pleasure in having you as an esteemed delegate/guest for the forthcoming conference.
